

PROCLAIMATION

The American Institute of Architects “Architecture Month” October, 2009

WHEREAS, architecture influences the daily lives of all Winter Park residents through the definition and enhancement of the area in which we work, play and live; and

WHEREAS, Winter Park’s past, present and future are of great concern to us all and continued growth and planned development play an important role in the economy, and our present and future quality of life; and

WHEREAS, architects in Winter Park are entrusted to protect public health, safety and welfare through their concern for and understanding of such important issues as growth management, accessibility for people with disabilities, historic preservation, energy consumption, housing for the homeless, as well as sensitivity to the relationship between nature and the built environment; and

WHEREAS, Winter Park architects have been recognized as forerunners of architectural design in Florida and the United States and have helped create a unique visual character for this community through innovative and responsive designs for public and private spaces; and

WHEREAS, the American Institute of Architects, Orlando Chapter and its members work diligently to serve the public interest and demonstrate their commitment by contributing to our community through volunteer efforts including developing and redeveloping neighborhoods, and designing educational tools for an enhanced appreciation of the built environment and preservation of the architectural heritage of our communities; and

WHEREAS, the American Institute of Architects, Orlando Chapter, celebrates 54 years of architecture in Orlando;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kenneth W. Bradley, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Winter Park in the State of Florida, do hereby proclaim the month of October 2009, as the celebration of “Architecture Month” in the City of Winter Park, Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Winter Park, Florida, to be affixed this 24th day of August 2009.
